

Harbor City

Harbor City PTA executive board met prior to the association meeting Tuesday, Nov. 12, at which time the group voted to make choir robes for the students. Mrs. James Alexander, president, announced that only 93 per cent had been reached towards membership.

The Webelos of Pack 743-C led the pledge of allegiance and Mr. McClintock's B-6 class, under the direction of Mrs. Gertrude Crum, with Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, accompanist, sang "Angeline" and "Peace." Mrs. C. L. Wilson was then introduced by Program Chairman Mrs. Dallas Wallick, who gave a demonstration of holiday decorations which included many beautiful centerpieces, package wrapping, gifts, tree decorations and many other lovely items. Mrs. Wilson, among her many other chairmanships, is 10th District arts, crafts, and posters chairman.

For the most parents present Mr. McClintock's class won for upper grades, and Mrs. San Phippen's first grade won for lower grades.

On Tuesday afternoon many of the group attended the organization meeting of Fleming Junior High.

Wednesday a kidnap breakfast was held at Mrs. Wallick's home and among the many guests present was Mrs. William Shier, harbor regional director, who also holds an office for 10th District, Gateway Council, and Lomita-San Pedro Council.

That afternoon several members helped with the kindergarten tea which was held at the Harbor City School, at which time the school nurse and doctor spoke to parents on the care of the school child.

Thursday Mrs. Craech, Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Leland Van Buren, school education chairman, attended a meeting in Los Angeles at which Dr. Shaffer spoke.

Carl Steele

"The hope of the world rests with the children of today," stated Rev. Shelby as he addressed the Carl Steele PTA. The responsibility of building character is the parents. Civilization today requires persons of immense strength and it is the duty of parents to provide their children with strength to meet the problems of the world.

A lively panel composed of students, Bob Marshall, Lyle Knight, Jimmy Miller, Jeff Peterson, and Jimmy Woodford and parents, Mrs. Fred Robbins, Jack Jackson, Neil Campbell and C. W. Bardo discussed discipline in the classroom. The consensus felt that discipline was mainly a parental function but also, of necessity, exercised in the classroom. The respect for discipline should be taught by the parents the panel concluded.

Mrs. A. D. Hawkins, president, presided. The Mothersingers under the direction of Mrs. Lorman Griffiths sang the inspirational "When Children Pray." Senior Girl Scout Troop 1277 lead the flag salute.

Mrs. Robert Golden, ways and means chairman, was hostess for her committee Monday evening. The committee discussed Saturday movies at the school, sale of school T-shirts and beanies, dog tags, class pictures, and a spaghetti dinner in conjunction with Public School Week. Members of the committee attending were: Mmes. A. Hawkins, L. Fischer, J. Huback, D. Coleman, W. Steele, G. Fowler, H. Thompson, and school principal R. K. Petrat.

Anza

Pack 248, Den 2, opened the November meeting of the Anza PTA last Thursday evening. Mrs. William Roseberry gave the inspirational message entitled "Take Time" and Miss Pleso's kindergarten class sang two Thanksgiving songs.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Gordon Stephens and awards made to those who had assisted with the carnival's success.

Grant Ruby and Edward Gorski gave talks on arithmetic. The Mothersingers closed the program with two numbers, "He" and "Bless This House."

Announcements were made concerning the Anza PTA membership drive and the TV gram on Channel 13 each day from 4 to 4:30 p.m.
